PETITION FOR RECONSIDERATION OF HOLDING OF ABANDONMENT OR IN THE ALTERNATIVE PETITION TO REVIVE AN APPLICATION FOR PATENT ABANDONED UNAVOIDABLY

The present nonprovisional application was filed on October 18, 2001. In response to a Notice to File Corrected Application Papers (hereinafter "the Notice"), mailed on November 26, 2001, Applicant filed his Submittal of Formal Drawings on December 10, 2001. Applicant's Submittal of Formal Drawings included a copy of the Notice and a pre-stamped return postcard. The cover page of the Submittal of Formal Drawings and the return postcard contained a Scrivener's error wherein one number in the serial number was improperly entered wherein Serial No. 09/982,682 was used instead of Serial No. 09/982,672. Additionally, the filing date showed the provisional filing date, October 18, 2000, instead of the nonprovisional filing date, October 18, 2001.

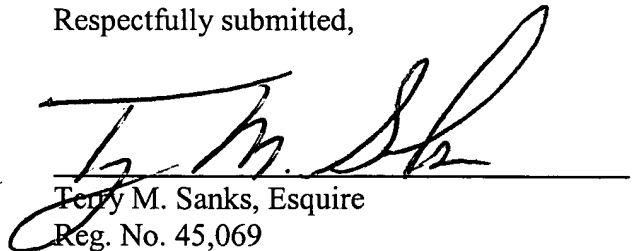

Applicant did receive the pre-stamped return postcard acknowledging receipt by the USPTO. Applicant did not receive any further correspondence with respect to this application.

According to the Patent Information Retrieval ("PAIR") system, the application was abandoned on "January 28, 2001," which is approximately nine months prior to the filing date of the nonprovisional application. Applicant never received a notice of abandonment, and only learned of the abandonment this week after checking the status of this application using the PAIR system.

Attached to this petition are a copy of the documents submitted on December 10, 2001, a copy of the returned postcard and a copy of the page from the PAIR system. The requisite fee for this petition is also attached. Should Applicant's petition for reconsideration of holding of abandonment be rejected, the form for Petition For Revival of an Application For Patent Abandoned Unavoidably Under 27 CFR 1.137(a) is also attached. Applicant respectfully requests the USPTO to consider this second petition in the alternative.

If further prosecution of the application can be facilitated by telephone, the undersigned may be reached at 407-926-7707.

Respectfully submitted,

(In the space provided below, please explain in detail the reasons for the delay in filing a proper reply.)

The present nonprovisional application was filed on October 18, 2001. In response to a Notice to File Corrected Application Papers (hereinafter "the Notice"), mailed on November 26, 2001, Applicant filed his Submittal of Formal Drawings on December 10, 2001. Applicant's Submittal of Formal Drawings included a copy of the Notice and a pre-stamped return postcard. The cover page of the Submittal of Formal Drawings and the return postcard contained a Scrivener's error wherein one number in the serial number was improperly entered wherein Serial No. 09/982,682 was used instead of Serial No. 09/982,672. Additionally, the filing date showed the provisional filing date, October 18, 2000, instead of the nonprovisional filing date, October 18, 2001.

Applicant did receive the pre-stamped return postcard acknowledging receipt by the USPTO. Applicant did not receive any further correspondence with respect to this application.

According to the Patent Information Retrieval ("PAIR") system, the application was abandoned on "January 28, 2001," which is approximately nine months prior to the filing date of the nonprovisional application. Applicant never received a notice of abandonment, and only learned of the abandonment this week after checking the status of this application using the PAIR system.

(Please attach additional sheets if additional space is needed.)
